

Juniors on Target

vol. 3 issue 5

June 2006

It's hard to believe that we are halfway through the year already – but there are still plenty of archery activities to come especially in July, with the Grand Prix Field, State and National Indoors and the Bowmen of Melville Junior Shoot. Keep your bows tuned!

Training Day

The next training day is on June 11 at Bowmen of Melville grounds. Pathway archers begin at 9.30 a.m and all other Juniors at 10.00 a.m. State Coach Ken Birch and Bowmen of Melville coach John Bailey will give you tips and ideas to improve your archery.

Club Uniforms

Recently ASWA have decided to clamp down on the wearing of uniforms at tournaments (Grand Prix and State Championships). Most of you are already wearing your club shirts, which is fantastic to see! Unfortunately some of us are getting sloppy on our pants, which is disappointing. Please ensure you're wearing your complete club uniform at the next competition you compete in, remembering that jeans are not permitted. Check with members of your club if you're unsure about the uniform, and if you're unable to wear complete club uniform all whites is permitted.

GP Postal Shoot Results

Thanks to those who sent in their scores for the May postal shoot. Congratulations to everyone – your scores are below and the certificates have been sent to your clubs.

Because the next Grand Prix is on June 4, the shooting dates would have overlapped this one, so we have moved the dates forward a week. To shoot in the June Postal Grand Prix, you may shoot from June 3 up to June 18, and have your scores in to one of us by June 19. Happy shooting.

State and National Indoor Championships

Now here's something you don't often see – two shoots for the price of one! This year the National Indoor Shoot is being run as a Postal shoot, with all archers in Australia who have entered, shooting on July 16. So... to be part of this nation wide archery extravaganza, enter the State Indoors and you will also be entered in the National Indoors. This year there has been a change of venue, and the shoot will be held at Kingsway International Sporting Complex, Kingsway Rd, Madeley. The cost of the double entry is $30, and entries close on July 2. All details have been sent to your club. If you decide not to shoot, then Bill Nicholson would really appreciate your help on the day.

Grand Prix #5 Field Tournament

Bowmen of Melville are once again hosting this great shoot – so even if you haven't shot field often, this will be an enjoyable day. The field course is unique, being one of few that are located in an urban setting. Remember that if you're planning on trying out for the State Team and missed the Baldivis Field, you'll need to shoot this one.
